Lookout of Titanic is Being Subjected to Graveling
Fire of Questions--Investigating Committee
May be Able to Fix Responsibility for Disaster Within Short Time.

Washington, April 24.—Word that the sinking of the Titanic was observed by the steamer Mt. Temple, which landed at St. Johns Newfoundland, last Friday, was received by Chairman Smith of the investigating committee from Dr. Quitzman, who says he saw the catastrophe and indicates his willingness to appear before the committee. This announcement was made during the recess of the committee. The premier of Canada is in communication with the committee, with a view of clearing up this phase of the disaster.

Washington, April 24.—J. Bruce Ismay, the chief official of the steamship line which owned the ill-fated Titanic, was ordered from one of the ship's life boats while it was being lowered because in his excitement he was interfering with the ship officers.

Language too objectionable to be repeated aloud in the senate inquiry into the Titanic disaster was used by Harold G. Lowe, the fifth officer of the ship. Lowe dramatically recited to the senate investigation committee he not knowing he was talking to the head of the company which employed him had told Ismay "Get the hell out of here, so that I can work," while Lowe and other sailors were trying to lower the first life boats on the starboard side of the Titanic. Lowe declared that Ismay was not trying to get into the life boats but was "very much excited and was interfering with the proper lowering of the boats, calling out 'Lower away! Lower away,' and I swore at him to order him back. Lowe said Ismay went back and made no reply to him. Lowe also testified that he never would have known the man was Ismay if he had not met one of the ship's stewards on the Carpathia who told him what he had done and asked him why he swore at Ismay.

The senate committee investigating the Titanic disaster began its fifth day of inquiry today and it is believed that before the close there will be fixed the question of the responsibility for the collision with the iceberg that proved the great ship's undoing.

Frederick Fleet, the Titanic outlook man, will be subjected to another grueling fire of questions on the stand in an effort to get him to fix the time he first reported to the officers the field of ice. This he claimed yesterday he was unable to do.

Frederick Fleet was called to the stand as the first witness when the hearing resumed at 10:15 today. Senator Burton asked him:

"When you were on the Titanic were your eyes examined? How often, and can you distinguish colors?"

"Yes, sir."

"When you were leaving the Titanic did you see a light?"

"I saw no light until I got into the life boats and then I saw a bright light on the forward bow. I do not know what it was. Mr. Lightholder told me as we were putting off from the Titanic to pull toward it. We never made it."

Senator Fletcher then asked Fleet regarding the loading of the life boats.

"Did you ever have any experience in loading life boats?"

"All of us do in the White Star line."

He said he saw no life boat other than No. 6 in which he pulled away with about 30 passengers.

"Were there any women left on the deck who did not get into the boat?"

"No, sir, I saw none."

"Did you hear any cries for help?"

"Yes, but very faint."

"Did you go back to help?"

"Some of the passengers wanted to but the quartermaster in command ordered us to keep on rowing."

"How far away from the Titanic were you when it went down?"

"I must have been a mile."

Senator Smith again explained the purpose of the investigation and Harold C. Lowe, fifth officer of the Titanic, was called. He told of his early experience from the time he ran away to sea Sunday.

out on the liner, and Major Peuchen.

Fleet acknowledged that if he had been aided in his observations by a good glass he probably could have seen the berg into which the ship crashed in time to have warned the bridge to avoid it.

Major Peuchen also testified to the much greater sweep of vision afforded by binoculars, and, as a yachtsman, said he believed the presence of the iceberg might have been detected in time to escape the collision had the lookout men been so equipped.

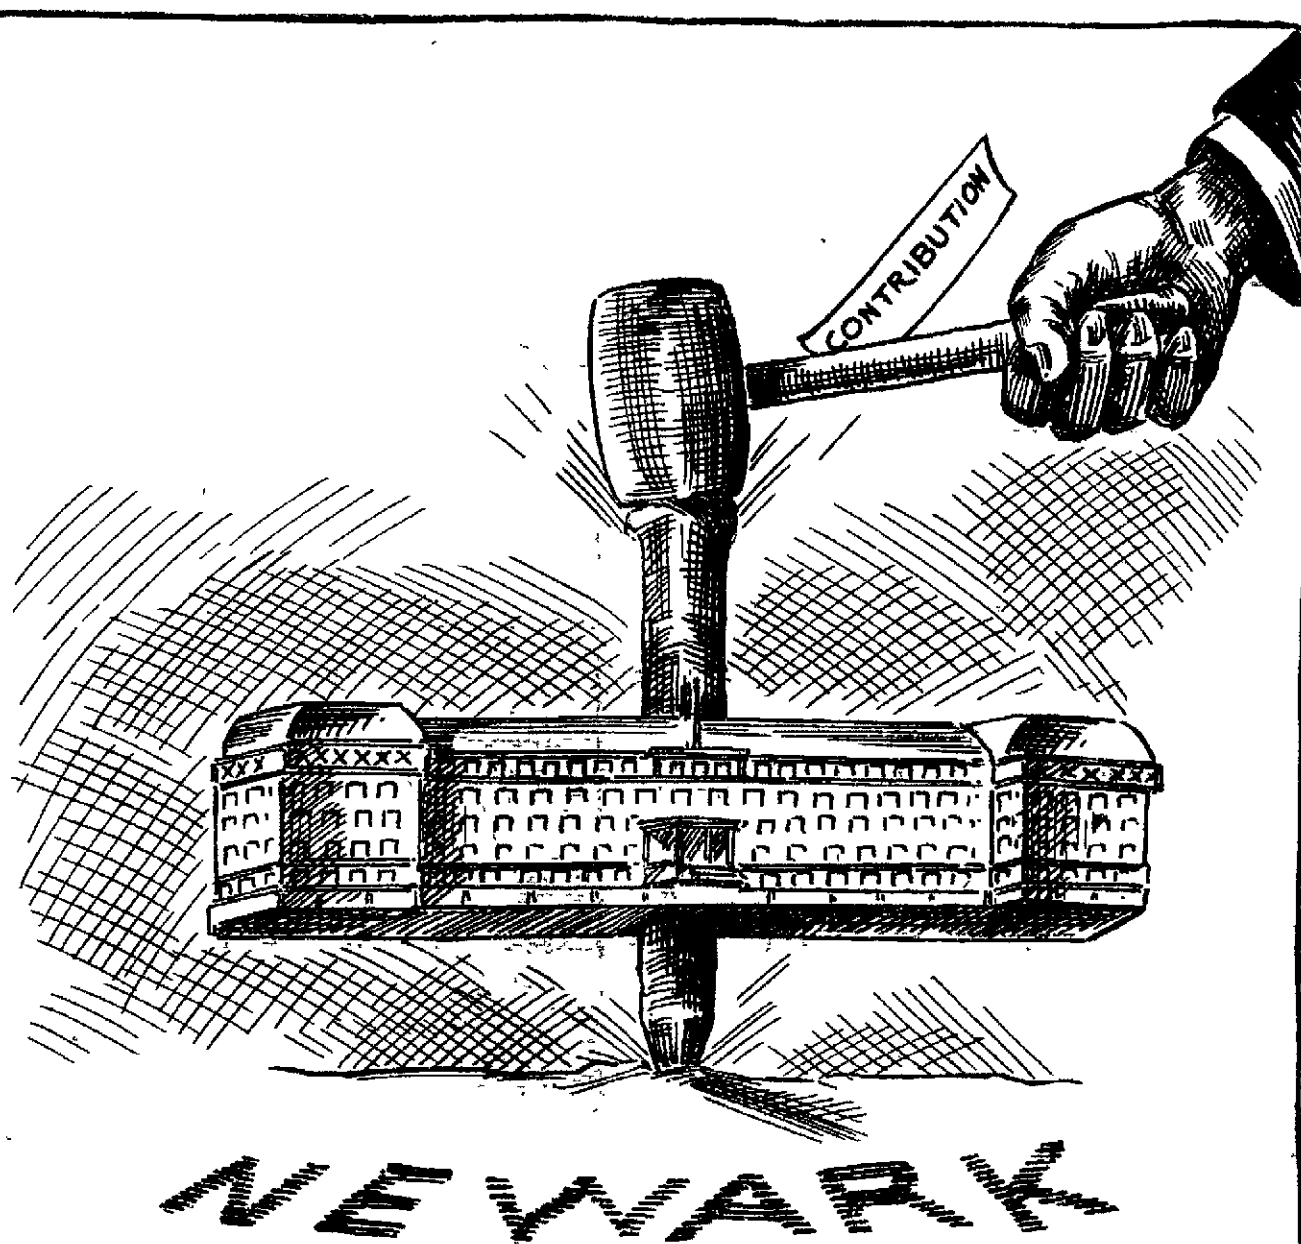

It was made to appear that the blame for being without glasses did not rest with the lookout men. Fleet said they had asked for them at Southampton and were told there were none for them. One glass in a pinch, would have served in the crew's need.

Major Peuchen criticised in strong terms the lack of experienced sailors on board the Titanic. He said that when the call to quarters was sounded not enough of the crew responded to undertake the work required in lowering and filling the boats.

Furthermore, he said, no drills had been held from the time the ship left Southampton, although it was customary to hold such drills every Sunday.

Officer Pitman, who said that he did not want to leave the ship in the first instance, because he believed her safe, but did so under orders declared that when the ship went

New York, April 24.—Charles P. Neill, U. S. Labor commissioner, and Judge Martin A. Knapp of the United States Commerce court today took up the work of mediation between 50 railroads east of Chicago and north of the Potomac river, and the engineers over the question of increased wages.

OPENING OF THE BASEBALL SEASON

Thursday, April 25th

First Championship Game Mansfield vs. Newark Game Called at 3 o'Clock

STATE LEAGUE SEASON WILL OPEN TOMORROW

The Ohio State league season will be formally opened tomorrow, Thursday, with games at Newark, Chillicothe and Lima. Everything is in readiness in all of these towns for the opening and in each case, arrangements have been made to precede the games with a little celebration featured by a parade of the ball players and fans, headed by a band.

There will be no pennant raising in the league this season as Springfield, which team won the pennant last season, is now with the Central league and of course will not fly its State league pennant today.

From all over the circuit comes the information that the prospects for a successful season in more ways than one, are good. The league has been strengthened, particularly in the case of Newark, with F. G. Warden and W. H. Watkins behind the movement.

The circuit is compact, the traveling expenses will be light, and there is a determination on a part of the league officials and club owners to keep within the salary limit to assure a successful conclusion of promising season of baseball.

Mansfield will be the attraction at Newark and Marion will open the game at Lima while Pete Childs and his Cobblers will be at Chillicothe when the umpire calls "play ball."

An innovation in opening the season will be tried this year as each town in the circuit will get a chance to see an opening game within two days.

After the first contest in each town, the teams will change the scene of operations and open in the three places where the fans were not so fortunate in getting the first game of the season.

On Friday, Newark will go to Mansfield and Lima will go to Marion while the Chillicothe team will journey to Portsmouth to give the fans in each place an opportunity to see their favorites in action.

The short traveling distances between the various towns makes this

NO "COME BACK" WHEN S.S.S. CURES

To every Contagious Blood Poison sufferer we recommend S. S. S. as a positive specific for the disease. It is a remedy which makes a clean cure and so thoroughly conquers this powerful infection that there is never any danger of a "come back" of the trouble in any form. This is the experience of the many thousands who have used S. S. S. during the forty years it has been upon the market.

Because of the treacherous and destructive nature of Contagious Blood Poison most medicines used for the treatment of the disease are composed largely of mineral drugs. It is intended that these shall kill the germs and virus of the disease by working on the principle that one poison counteracts the effects of another. Such treatment always fails to make a permanent cure because these germs cannot be killed within the system. Strong mineral mixtures may temporarily check the activity of the contagious virus, and in this way "dry up" or remove the outer signs of blood poison, but as soon as such treatment is left off and the system reacts from its influence, the disease "comes back" and the sufferer finds he has been deceived.

In no other disease is a thorough cleansing of the blood more necessary than in Contagious Blood Poison. The least particle of the insidious virus will multiply in the circulation and so thoroughly contaminate the blood that no portion of the body is exempt from infection. Knowing the terrible results which may come from delay, or improper treatment of Contagious Blood Poison, we warn every sufferer not to trifle with this disease. It is too powerful and dangerous and may wreck and ruin your life.

S. S. S. works on a very different principle from the mineral medicines. This remedy REMOVES the germs from the blood instead of trying to destroy them within the system. S. S. S. is able to do this in every case because it is an absolutely perfect blood purifier. S. S. S. cures by going down into the blood and forcing out every particle of the virus and making the circulation rich, pure and healthy. Through the blood it goes to every nook and corner of the system and as the body is supplied with this fresh pure blood the symptoms of Blood Poison gradually pass away and the disease is permanently cured. S. S. S. does not patch up the body; it cures and makes it healthy, and when it has done its work no trace of the disease is left to "come back" in any form or be handed down to posterity. S. S. S. does not contain a particle of mineral or other harmful drug; it is made entirely from roots, herbs and barks and is Nature's safe and true blood purifier. Anyone can take S. S. S. without the least fear of injurious results. Special book on Home Treatment, and any medical advice will be given free to all who write and request same.

PLANS ARE NOW COMPLETE FOR THE BIG PARADE

Arrangements were completed this afternoon for the band which will head the baseball parade which will mark the opening of the Ohio State League season tomorrow. Through the efforts of Thomas Evans and John M. Ankele, enough money was collected to pay the band boys and automobile owners were asked to donate the use of their machines for the event.

The Blair Motor Truck Company will furnish one or two trucks for the band and players, and other motors will be lined up with the fans and officials of the club.

Mayor Swartz has been invited to toss the first "white rock," and mayor can throw it as far as the crowd to present plans. Safety Director Wayne Collier will don the big mitt and catch the ball, if the plate and within reach of the catcher. The start will be made from the Warden Hotel about 1 o'clock.

WHITE UNIFORMS ISSUED TODAY

Those players who were retained by Manager Grim were called to the manager's room in the hotel Wednesday morning and their brand new white uniforms were fitted and distributed. The uniforms are made of good quality, and of the latest approved design. The trimmings are of black, with the name "Newark" in neat black letters on the front. The traveling uniforms will probably not be distributed until Friday morning before the team starts for Mansfield.

PASTORIUS WILL OFFICIATE HERE IN THE OPENER

President Robert Read of the Ohio State League this morning announced the assignment of umpires for the opening series. Newark draws Pastorius for the game with Mansfield. Truly was assigned for duty at Lima in the game with Marion, and O'Brien will handle the indicator in the contest between Portsmouth and Chillicothe at the latter city. The umpires were ordered to Columbus today for the final instructions from the president, and were guests at the game between Columbus and Minneapolis. They will go to the towns to which they were assigned, Thursday morning, to be on hand for the opening festivities.

WHAT NEWARK GETS FROM THE LEAGUE SCHEDULE

Newark shared very well at the hands of Bob Quinn, who drafted the Ohio State League schedule. We get one holiday date at Newark, July 4, when Portsmouth comes for two games.

The other two holidays the boys will be away from home. Memorial Day sees the team at Chillicothe for two games and Labor Day finds the club at Portsmouth for two games with the Cobblers.

We get ten Sunday games at home, with eight on the road. The team opens the season here, and after playing two games at Mansfield Friday and Saturday of this week, the boys return to their own lot for a series of eight games, Portsmouth and Lima coming for four games each.

A short trip of six games on the road, when the team visits Portsmouth and Mansfield, brings the boys back home for two games with McCormick's Tigers. The boys then go to Lima and Marion for eight games. This will end the first month's work.

TWO RELEASES; OTHERS SIGN THEIR CONTRACTS

Manager Grim announced this morning that the last of the local candidates for positions on the ball team had affixed their signatures to contracts, which means that they are all within the fold. Outfielder Pfeiffer, who arrived last night from Springfield, has not signed, but was expected to join the bunch before the day was over. Infielder Harrison, who was ordered to Newark by

INDIANAPOLIS TURNS "BUNNY" PEARCE ADRIFT

"BUNNY" PEARCE
Former Newark Catcher, Released by Indianapolis, After Buying Release from Oakland, Cal. Team.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 24. — Manager Burke of the Indians yesterday cut the strings on "Bunny" Pearce and recruit Kilhullen, both backstops being given unconditional release. Pearce has been with the tribe since the beginning of the training season, coming here from the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast League. He obtained his release from Oakland in order that he might join Indianapolis, and for a time it looked as if he might be retained as first catcher.

With the acquisition of Clarke and Casey, Burke figured that Pearce's services were no longer needed.

An effort may be made by Manager Grim to secure the services of Pearce for the Newark club. Negotiations were opened at once when it became known this morning that Pearce had been cut loose from the Indians.

The failure of the big catcher to make good was a disappointment to Indianapolis, as he was counted on for the mainstay of the catching department.

The thousands who suffer the miseries of colds and catarrh and claim they have never found a cure can get instant relief by simply anointing the nostrils with Ely's Cream Balm.

Unlike internal medicines which upset the stomach or strong snuffs which only aggravates the trouble, this cleansing, healing, antiseptic Balm instantly reaches the seat of the trouble, stops the nasty discharge, clears the nose, head and throat, and brings back the sense of taste, smell and improves hearing. More than this, it strengthens the weakened and diseased tissues, thus protecting you against a return of the trouble. This remedy will cure a cold in a day, and prevent its becoming chronic or resulting in catarrh.

Nasal catarrh is an inflammation of the membrane lining the air passages, and cannot be reached by mixtures taken into the stomach, nor can it be cured by snuffs and powders which only cause additional irritation. Don't waste time on them. Get a 50 cent bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist, and after using it for a day you will wish you had tried it sooner.

"Home Run" Baker Got That Monaker 3 Years Ago Today

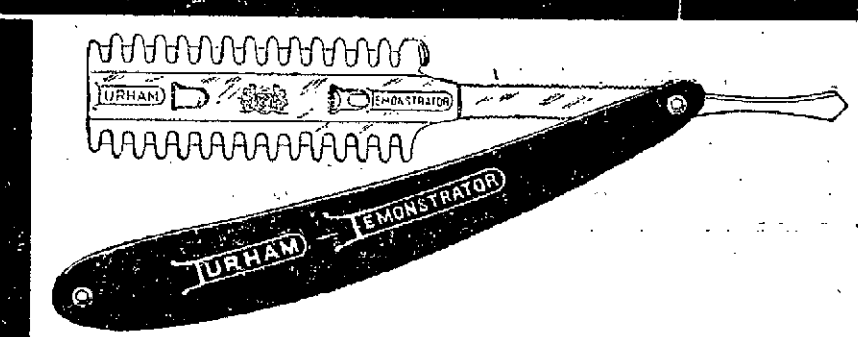

"Home Run" Baker of the Athletics, who became an international character, made him a favorite with the Quaker City fans. It was on April 24, 1909, that Baker went to bat, when the bases were full, and smashed out a home run, tallying four for the Athletics. Pitcher Arellance was in the box for the Bostonians when Baker made that smash. Baker's feat, the only one run with bases filled during the 1909 season in the American League, was naturally hailed with joyous acclaim by the Philadelphia bugs, who immediately and in unison, as it were, would say, presented Baker with the "Home Run" prefix, a name which he has since fully lived up to. Incidentally it may be remarked that, while his good for a complete circuit of the bag are not infrequently made, home runs when the bases are full are about as scarce in big league circles as poultry molar. Baker, admittedly the greatest third baseman of them all, was born on a farm near Trappe, Md., a little over twenty-six years ago. His boyhood was spent working on a farm, and he continues a farmer in the intervals between seasons. He began his professional baseball career in the Eastern Shore League, a little Maryland organization. His team mates included the late Simon Nicholas and Charley Herzog, who was later to win fame with the New York Giants. J. Frank made a great local reputation, and Jack Dunn, of the Baltimore club in the Eastern league, offered him a

ALWAYS TIRED, WITH LITTLE VITALITY

Modern Tonic, Tona Vita,
Will Surely Build
You Up Again

Are you one of the run-down, half sick, nervous people with which the country is filled? Do you feel tired all the time with very little vitality? Do you sleep badly and feel as worn out in the morning as when you went to bed? Is your circulation poor and do you catch cold easily? Have you stomach trouble and an irregular appetite? Are you nervous, moody and depressed?

These are sure symptoms of nervous debility. If you are struggling along in this miserable condition the best thing you can possibly do for yourself is to take "Tona Vita," the wonderful new tonic that has the unqualified endorsement of more physicians than any other medicine ever before offered to the public.

Here is what the Rev. Gustave Frederik, pastor of the Evangelistic church, Center Street, Milwaukee, Wis., has to say of it:

"Judging from my own experience I do not hesitate to say that 'Tona Vita' is an extremely valuable preparation. I have not only used it myself, but all other members of my family have been taking it with highly satisfactory results."

"So far as my own case is concerned I have been in a run-down condition for a year or so, tiring easily and being troubled with sleeplessness. I lacked vitality and caught cold readily, and my digestion and appetite were poor. I was depressed in mind and body and very nervous."

"I now feel stronger than for a long time. I have more energy and my work is done with much less effort. I sleep and eat better and feel as though rejuvenated."

"Tona Vita acts quickly. You will be surprised how rapidly it will build you up. R. F. Collins, 27 North Third street has the agency for Tona Vita in Newark, Ohio, and will return the purchase price if not entirely satisfactory. The Approved Formula Co., Dayton, O.

IMPROVEMENT OF NEWARK

BY MABELLE JOHNSON, SEVENTH GRADE, NORTH FOURTH

Many, many things can be done to improve Newark. Some people seem to think that our city is beyond improvement and say, Oh, what is the use? These people do not seem to think that any spot on earth can be made more beautiful. It is true Newark is in a pretty bad shape, but by a little bit of hard labor we can make our city one of the most beautiful cities in the state. This is saying much as Newark has not so many fine buildings as some of the other cities in Ohio have, but, "Be it ever so humble," cleanliness, and flowers will make a city beautiful.

Paved streets should be swept at least once a day. There should be waste paper boxes at all street corners, and an ordinance passed that everyone should throw their paper in these boxes upon the sidewalk.

It would be a great improvement to any city, especially to Newark if the Board of Public Safety would buy or rent vacant lots for the boys and girls to make gardens. If there were public playgrounds there would not be so many boys lounging around on the street corners.

If the city would have a place to burn all rubbish, and not have so many dump piles around, there would not be so much sickness. These small dump places could be made into tiny parks. All garbage should be put in tight cans and hauled away at least every other day.

The railway station should be kept clean and have a nice lawn so that people passing through the city will not form a bad opinion of it.

A children's league for civic improvement ought to be formed and all the school children of Newark should belong.

There should also be an ordinance passed that all houses should be built so many feet back from the street. All the houses on one street should cost about the same price.

Now that I have finished this little composition on civic improvement, I am going to ask you to read it and to help us make Newark more beautiful.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the great system tonic and builder.

Walton is still in the Sanitarium, the warrant for his arrest not having been served.

BAD BREATH

It's Your Duty to Get at the Cause and Remove It. A Word to the Wise, You Know.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, will positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant sugar coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels, and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system of impurities.

The do-all that dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening cathartics are derived from Olive Tablets without griping, pain, or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Olive tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil one every night for a week and note the effect.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

ELECTION OF SENATORS

By Popular Vote Will Be Taken Up on the Floors of Both Houses.

Washington, April 24.—A conference report was made to the senate announcing the failure of agreement on the resolution looking to a constitutional amendment to provide for popular election of senators. It declared that the house proposed to take away from congress all supervisory power over senatorial elections.

"To deprive congress of the right to say whether a member of either body had been corruptly elected," said Senator Clark of Wyoming, chairman of the judiciary committee, is striking at the very root of our legislative department. It is my opinion that the house amendment would preclude congress from making any investigation into the election of a senator. It would leave it entirely in the hands of the states." Senator Clark is one of the senate conferees. The report of the failure of agreement after 16 conferences between the representatives of the two houses is in accord with a notice Senator Clark gave recently that he would report disagreement. The matter now will be brought up on the floors of the two houses.

F. T. MERCER FOR COUNTY AUDITOR

FRANK T. MERCER.

Frank T. Mercer is a candidate for the nomination for County Auditor on the Democratic ticket, another reason why he should be given this place that appeals to every tax-payer of Licking county, is the Pike question, the contracts for the construction of the eight different pikes have been let, they are all under construction, no two of them with the same percentage of work completed, a certain per cent. of the cost of these pikes is to be charged to the abutting property owner, the balance to the tax-payers, if these accounts are not kept right and absolutely right, either the abutting property owner or the tax-payer will be wronged, neither should be. Mr. Mercer being a good double entry book-keeper has devised a system of keeping these accounts, which he invites every tax-payer of the county to inspect. The new Board of County Commissioners will necessarily be all new men, and having had nothing to do with making these contracts, knowing nothing as to their provisions and the state of construction of these pikes, it is almost imperative that Mr. Mercer be given this position to assist the new Board of County Commissioners in completing these contracts. Mr. Mercer can be a great benefit not only to the Democratic party but to all tax-payers of Licking county. He invites comparisons and solicits your vote.

Sun sets 6.49, rises 5.03. Evening stars: Mars, Saturn. Morning stars: Venus, Jupiter, Mercury.

Springfield and Clark county are in the throes of a hot local option fight. The county votes tomorrow whether it shall remain dry under the Rose law.

Governor Harmon left Columbus Tuesday night on a campaigning tour and today is on his way from St. Louis to Dallas, Texas. He will spend a week in a stumping tour of that state.

If Roosevelt should capture the Republican nomination for President the Democrats would find three words in their platform quite sufficient to win their victory—"No Third Term."

The manner in which Roosevelt has been carrying the states where Republican primaries have been held of late gives ground for many of that party to believe that President Taft's campaign even in Ohio will collapse entirely if he loses Southern delegates already pledged and fails to get more in other states.

The success of the third-term has been most notable in the two states where most of the Steel Trust's plants are and the headquarters of the Harvester Trust. George Perkins of the Steel Trust, and Medill McCormick of the Harvester Trust are financiers for the third-term.

The House at Washington has passed a bill which lets the people know who the backers of the Presidential candidates are. Here's hoping it may pass the Senate and become a law, so that the people will get the real facts instead of the mere assertions of politicians.

Illinois Republicans meet the difficulty presented by their desire to stand up for the President and their obligation to shout for Roosevelt by

Our Heroes of the Deep.

(To Those Who Perished on the Titanic.)

By MARY E. FULLER.
Weep not for heroes, who have sailed to that shore so bright; They'll hear no more groans or weeping, as on that fatal night. They are only waiting for their loved ones to come.

To join them in their eternal home But your noble deeds in our memories we shall keep. Our dear, noble heroes of the deep, You stood by your captain, true and brave.

The lives of others for to save. As those that were saved from the waters blue.

But in peace and rest your souls shall float, Where God is commander of the boat.

Where the sails are golden, and the mingles, too, That he robed in white, instead of jackets blue.

Rest and sleep, dear noble souls, Rest and sleep; Rich and poor, man or child, all alike are our heroes of the deep.

MR. BATCHELDER TO HAVE OFFICE IN CHICAGO, ILL.

The Railway Age Gazette for April 19th contains an article on the recent appointment of Mr. F. C. Batchelder as assistant to the president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad and his election to the presidency of the Baltimore and Ohio Chicago terminal, of which mention was made in the Advocate some time ago.

The article says in part: "In recognition of the great possibilities for traffic development to and from Chicago, it has been decided by President Willard that not only should the president of the Baltimore and Ohio Chicago Terminal Company be located in Chicago, which is to be the case in the future, but he has also decided that the interests of the Baltimore and Ohio would be better served by having an assistant to the president located in that city. It is understood that Mr. Batchelder will be authorized to represent the president in all matters likely to come up at the western terminal, and that it will be the policy of the Baltimore and Ohio to co-operate with its shippers and friends located in the west in every possible way for the mutual benefit of both.

President Willard and Mr. Batchelder have been personal friends and business associates for more than 20 years, and the selection of Mr. Batchelder for the important position to which he has been appointed, may be taken to indicate not only the deep interest which President Willard himself takes in the western terminal of the Baltimore and Ohio system, but also that because of his acquaintance with and knowledge of Mr. Batchelder's ability, he will probably give him greater authority than is usually given to men occupying similar positions.

PHIL CAMPBELL, 30 TOMORROW, IS THE UMPIRES' FRIEND.

Philip Pitt Campbell, native of Nova Scotia but now residing in Pittsburgh, Kan., when at home, which is seldom, is the representative of the Third Kansas district in the House of Representatives at Washington, and one of the most luminous of the lights in that brilliant assemblage of lawmakers. As a regular Republican, Mr. Campbell is not so much in the limelight as in those vanished days when "Uncle Joe" Cannon was the big gun of the House, but he still manages to keep his front page batting average up to a fair figure. Congressman Campbell will have a semi-centennial all his own tomorrow, having been born at Cape Breton, N. S., April 25, 1862.

Lately Congressman Campbell has been engaged in a controversy with Colonel Roosevelt which is remarkable for the familiarity with sporting terms shown by both parties to the verbal warfare. The Sunflower State lawmaker started the argument, when in the course of an address before the Taft league of New Hampshire, at Concord, he declared, "The Republican party does not believe in an appeal from the umpire to the bleachers." The phrase was taken up and spread all over the country.

ISMAY.

Men felt their vessel sinking into the icy wave, and calmly and unshrinking they gazed upon the low, cold, and grimacing face of the Titanic.

of midnight bore from out the doomed Titanic — and Ismay came ashore. The peasant, rude and lowly, sank fearless in the foam, repeating prayers holy, his eyes toward his home; the Croesus died serenely and sank to ocean's floor, and no one perished meanly—but Ismay came ashore. Men faced their doom as Stoic faced death in days of old; oh, human souls heroic, oh hearts of tested gold! The wild dark waves forever your requiem will roar! Your fame will perish never—and Ismay came ashore. The bride and groom were parted, the parents died alone, and children, broken hearted, can only mourn and moan, and dream about the faces, the smiles they'll see no more in old familiar places—and Ismay came ashore. Ah, no! was such a story on poet's pages placed, the triumph and the glory of manhood undebased! Of manhood strong and tender, of hearts of virgin ore, of death when death is splendid—and Ismay came ashore!

Colorado, top of the world, known everywhere as the greatest mining state in the Union, is making amazing strides in agricultural development. The story of its wonderful progress during recent years and its exceptional farming possibilities is told in an attractively illustrated pamphlet, "The Fertile Lands of Colorado," just published and now being distributed by the Passenger Department of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad. The text is by that well-known authority on all things agricultural, Mr. Clarence A. Lyman of Loma, Colorado.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR AT SMALL COST

A Simple Remedy Beautifies the Hair, Cures Dandruff, Stops Falling Hair.

What a pity it is to see so many people with thin, wispy hair, faded or streaked with gray, and realize that most of these people might have soft, glossy, abundant hair of beautiful color and lustre if they would but use the proper treatment. There is no necessity for gray hair under sixty-five years of age, and there is no excuse for anyone, young or old, having thin, straggling hair, either full of dandruff or heavy and rank smelling with excessive oil.

You can bring back the natural color of your hair in a few days and forever rid yourself of any dandruff and loose hairs, and make your hair grow strong and beautiful by using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. For generations common garden Sage has been used for restoring and preserving the color of the hair; and Sulphur is recognized by Scalp Specialists as being excellent for the treatment of hair and scalp troubles.

If you are troubled with dandruff or itching scalp, or if your hair is losing its color or coming out, get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and notice the improvement in the appearance of your hair after a few days' treatment. Frank D. Hall, agent.

A lazy liver leads to chronic dyspepsia and constipation, weakens the whole system, drains the blood, (25 cents per box) corrects the liver, tones the stomach, cures constipation.

NEWARK GIRLS ARE ARRANGING FOR LONG HIKE

Six well known young ladies of this city have in contemplation a plan whereby in the course of a few weeks they will begin a long hike to the Pacific coast. The jaunt will be taken for both pleasure and health and the walk will only be made one way, as the girls will be satisfied to take a Pullman on the return trip.

They will earn their expenses on the journey in various ways. One of the young ladies will furnish a string of newspapers with stories of their experiences, two will sing in picture shows, while a third will furnish instrumental music. The other two young ladies will distribute and demonstrate for a delicatessen wholesale house, and all six of the young girls will sample the various towns through which they pass with a well known brand of chewing gum.

The young ladies expect to earn enough on the trip to keep them in California for at least a month and pay their expenses back to Newark. The trip will be made as the result of a dare proposed by two of the young ladies at a recent club meeting.

The girls expect to purchase revolvers and will take a number of lessons at shooting at a mark in the near future. While they do not expect to experience any trouble on the road, they are going to be prepared for emergencies.

The names of the young ladies who are to compose the party of walking tourists cannot be made public at this time, as all plans have not been fully made. However, every detail of their trip will be arranged in advance, and within twenty days after starting, the girls expect to do a regular Weston stunt of at least 20 miles a day.

HEART AND HOME TALKS BY BARBARA BOYD

Reducing the Work of the Home

A WOMAN who is having a little seashore cottage built for her is planning it, and planning her method of living there, so as to cut out as much housework as possible. Some of her ideas may be helpful to other women, not only for seashore living, but for the ordinary routine of the home.

This woman's house is a little six-roomed bungalow, three bedrooms, a bathroom, a large living room and a kitchen. The living room is to answer both as living room and dining room. In the dining room end of it is to be a built-in corner cupboard, and in the shallow bay-window the window-seats are to be built-in lockers with sliding doors. In this corner cupboard and in these window-seat closets will be kept the china, canned goods and such articles, for there will be neither sideboard nor pantry in the house. She purposes to use only paper doilies for her tables, and paper napkins. These will be thrown away or burned after each meal, and thus the laundry will be considerably lightened. Asbestos mats for warm dishes will save her table top.

In the living-room end of the room is to be a big fireplace, a large flat-top desk, easy chairs and built-in shelves for books. There is to be just as little furniture as possible, in order to eliminate dusting. But there will be plenty of pottery bowls and clear glass vases for flowers. So that with her casement windows always open for the sea-breeze, the sunlight pouring in, the masses of gay flowers here and there, and when it is cool a fire glowing on the hearth, her room will be always cosy, cheery and restful.

In the bedrooms she is to have couch-hammocks, built-in shelves with sliding doors for bureaus, and an easy chair or two. These big, roomy couch-hammocks with springs are as comfortable as a bed, and much less trouble to take care of.

Her meals she intends to be nourishing and simple, served daintily, but simply. She has thus eliminated a lot of work, a lot of useless furniture, and yet reduced neither real comfort nor health. And she says if her friends do not like her method of living, they can stay away.

It requires some courage to take a stand against our elaborate living of today. But for those to whom it is a tax the stand is worth taking. It is all right for millionaires to live in the complex fashion they do, if they wish to. It is for them simply a question of paying bills, and this is no difficult matter. But for every other woman all the way down the line to follow their lead at the expense of comfort and peace of mind seems scarcely worth while. Some find their satisfaction in it, and then perhaps it is its own reward. But if a woman feels she is throwing to the wind all that is worth-while in order to keep up the pace, wouldn't it be better to do as this woman has done and take a stand for simpler living? One need not in such housekeeping discard any of the real refinements of life, but one needs to do some thinking for herself as to what are essentials and what non-essentials.

57 VARIETIES OF EXCITEMENT AT HEINZ FIRE

Chicago, April 24.—There were "57 varieties" of excitement when a five-story warehouse of the Heinz Pickle company was burned today, entailing a loss of $600,000.

A terrific explosion on the third floor of the building threw members of a truck company from a ladder. Only one fireman was injured. A street car with 100 persons on their way to work was surrounded by flames that leaped across the street just as the car was opposite the building. There was a scramble for the door. Police and firemen rushed in and quelled the passengers and helped them out of the car.

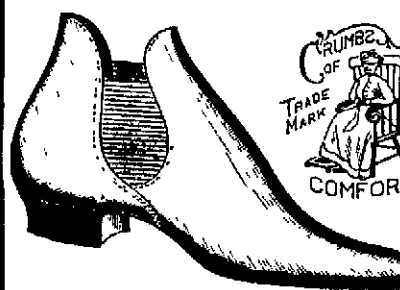

The flames spread to nearby buildings and hundreds of persons rushed from their beds in flats and rooming houses in the neighborhood. Many were scantily clad.

They crowded into the street, so thickly that the fire apparatus could hardly reach the warehouse.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

The Story of Little Skipping
Rope Mary

DADDY began with a sigh, one of those loud make-believe sighs that made Jack and Evelyn sit up and take notice. A sigh like that meant that daddy had some slip hint for one or the other of them in his story. "It's skipping rope time now, isn't it?" daddy began, with a glance at Evelyn.

It surely was skipping rope time, as the soles of Evelyn's shoes and her well worn rope would have shown daddy. "Very well," daddy went on, "I think I will tell you a little story about skipping rope Mary."

"Mary could skip the rope forward and backward, with her arms crossed or held in many other queer ways. Mary could skip on one foot or on two feet, and the persons who watched her often wondered why Mary needed any feet at all, her toes were so sated on the ground."

"When other little girls turned the rope Mary was almost always the skipper. The rule of the game is, as you know, that one may skip until she misses. So Mary could seldom get two little girls willing to stand and turn the ends of the rope till she got tired. Mary sometimes could get one very small girl to turn an end of the rope, and she would tie the other to the fence. "Mary's mother did not like her little girl to skip the rope too much. The doctor had said that too much of it was bad for the health. Besides, Mary's shoes wore out so rapidly that she seldom had a neat looking pair on her feet."

"So one day after talking it over with grandma Mary's mother said: "Now, Mary, a new pair of shoes every week is too much to ask of me. You must wear your shoes for a month at least. Not oftener than that can you have them. If your shoes wear out before you must stand the consequences."

"Consequences is a big word, but Mary learned what it meant when in about a week she had skipped the soles loose and knocked the toes out of her nice new shoes."

"Mother simply wouldn't buy Mary another pair till the month was up, and the little girl had to go to school and church with her toes out and her soles flapping. Mary didn't like that."

"Besides, you can't jump so well with flapping soles, and so Mary had to cut out some of her skipping. When she did get the new shoes she took better care of them, and, while Mary now isn't known among the little girls of her acquaintance as the best rope skipper in the block, they know her feet are more neatly shod and older folks do not say, 'What shabby shoes that little girl has!'"

Fifty Years Ago Today.

April 24.

Farragut's warships ran past the Confederate forts at New Orleans, Jackson and St. Philip, delivering and receiving fire as they sailed. Above the forts they encountered a fleet of Confederate gunboats and five rafts, which was dispersed after a stubborn all day battle. Reliable news of this event and the fall of New Orleans first reached Washington and the northern public on May 8 via Cuba. Farragut's official announcement arrived in Washington May 10.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

Stories were current that a Cleveland letter formally renouncing a second term in the White House had been suppressed.

Vernon Redding was present and went over the plans with the members of the board, the latter deciding on materials and other matters.

New Sign Erected.
A new and handsome sign for the
W. H. Mazy Company was placed in position over the entrance of the Mazy store, Wednesday morning.
The sign is made of raised letters covered with gold leaf on a black background and presents a neat appearance.

Erecting New House.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cordray have begun the erection of a modern 7-room house on their lot adjoining their present home on West Main street. The house will be two stories and furnished with all conveniences and when completed will add greatly to the appearance of the street.

Watch the Clock.
Workmen completed the work on the big clock for the hospital campaign late Tuesday evening, and the power was turned into the incandescent lamps for the first time last night. A row of lamps circles the face of the clock, and the hands are outlined with similar lights.

May Attends Encampment.
A Pennsylvania passenger agent was in the city today in conference with officers of the Old Guard regarding their transportation to the state G. A. R. encampment at Springfield. The local company will have about fifty men in line and may be accompanied by the Old Guard Drum Corps.

Good Catches at Lake.
The fishing season will close one week from today and lovers of the recreational sport are working overtime trying to land good bass strings.
Wednesday morning Messrs. Charles Henry and Charles Schaller autoed to the lake at 4 a. m. and before 10 o'clock had landed a string of black bass, the combined weight of their catch being 61 pounds. Mr. Henry's string contained nine beauties and Mr. Schaller's eleven. The gentlemen landed them around the bend close to the tuft banks.

Offers Big Reward.
The Advocate has received a circular from George Joseph, Lacka-wana, N. Y., offering a reward of $1000 for information leading to the recovery of his son, Joseph Joseph, aged 7, who disappeared from his home Oct. 12, 1911. The boy is 3-1/2 feet tall, weighs 40 or 50 pounds, has large black eyes, black hair and dark complexion. Teeth bad, one lower and two upper teeth being gone. When last seen he wore corduroy trousers, a blue flannel shirt and brown hat. He speaks both English and Syrian. A band of gypsies was in the city and it is believed that he was kidnapped. Mr.
Joseph adds that the boy's mother has been nearly distracted with grief since the lad's disappearance.

Away With the Corn Dentist!

"BINGO" Beats Knife and Chisel

Have you a corn, callous, bunion, wart? Use judgment—use "Bingo."
Don't try to slice it off or dig it out—don't run risk of infection. Don't let corn surgeon cut or snip—
don't let him use knife and chisel.
How can he know how deep to go without hurting you—without drawing blood? Why pay more for just temporary relief than a little bottle of "Bingo" costs (2 bits)?
Don't use sticky plasters with thin coating of dope to attract surface only —with straps to bulge the stocking—increase pressure against tender, painful spot—and make you wear larger shoes.

"Bingo's" better, quicker, safer, more thorough. Gets rid of these pests entire. Allays pain and inflammation quickly—a corn or callous shrinks—you pick it off—throw it

SWEETHEART CHASED LOVER WITH HATPINS

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—Because her gallant soldier lover flirted with another girl at a dance Carrie Smith, a militant daughter of the regiment, attempted to end the affair in a tragic manner. With a big pistol she chased the soldier all over the Ft. Wayne reservation.

He took refuge behind the entrenchments and was preparing to hoist the white flag when a relief expedition arrived. Carrie refused to obey the order to cease firing and she was taken prisoner of war.

When Police Officer Tom Collop attempted to escort Carrie to a motor bus she directed an attack on him.

Drawing two dangerous looking hat pins she wounded him three times before he could repel her. Collop finally disarmed the enraged girl but not before she sunk her teeth into his left forearm.

Justice Stein allowed her to go on a suspended sentence, but advised her to go back to her husband and child in Toledo.

GIRL'S COLOR RETURNS

Was Pale and Sickly Last Spring
"Every boy is worth five dollars," is an old saying among people who think that the impurities of the blood escape when a boy breaks.

But that is a great mistake. A boy is only a sign of impure blood and has no purifying power. The only thing to do is to enrich and vivify the blood and the best thing for this is Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil.

Other signs of bad blood are pale skin, weakness, nervousness and run-down condition of the system.

Miss Alice Jones, a bright young girl of Richmond Hill, N. Y., was pale and weak for months. She began taking Vinol and it not only made her well and strong, but also brought back her healthy color. She also says "I like to take Vinol as the taste is pleasant."

This is the very best time of year to put your blood in good order and build up your system, and we guarantee that Vinol will do this. If it does not, we give back your money. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O.

FORTUNE HELD BY THE BEGGAR WHEN ARRESTED

New York, April 24.—"The 'King of Beggars' is in New York and under lock and key. In possession of a fortune he was picked up on a charge of intoxication and disorderly conduct. He calls himself the 'King of Beggars' and had no objection to telling the police of his career. In Cleveland recently he gathered up $17,000 from sympathetic auditors and the Probate Court of that city appointed a guardian to look after his money.

He finally decided to go back to his home in France, but he fell out with his guardian and finally came to grief at Fourteenth street and Ninth avenue.

His name is Gelatine Gantier, and he formerly lived at Cleveland. He came to New York with his pockets bulging with press clippings, describing him as the most able panhandler of his clan.

The guardian came here with him and Gantier, who is 52 years old, bought passage for himself on one of the liners; but when he asked for a settlement with the guardian a dispute arose. Gantier was not satisfied with the way his affairs were administered, the police say, and he appealed to the French Consul. Gantier told the officials of the consulate that there was at least $10,000 coming to him and maybe $15,000.

NEWARK MAN'S NEPHEW LOST ON TITANIC

William H. Harbeck, of Toledo manufacturer of moving pictures and former deputy sheriff, a nephew of Zack Milligan, bricklayer, of 240 Buckingham street, this city, who resided here in his early youth, was a passenger on the steamer Titanic. The Gaumont Company, motion picture makers at Toledo, O. received a cablegram to this effect following the disaster and transmitted the message to Mr. Harbeck's family at 732 Michigan street, Toledo.

That Mr. Harbeck is a victim of the disaster there is no doubt for his name never appeared in the list of survivors published since the sinking of the ship.

Nothing has been heard from him since April 10 when he wrote his family that he would be in the United States on the Titanic. He was the only Toledoan on the ill-fated ship, as far as is known.

Mr. Harbeck went to Europe the latter part of February to dispose of moving picture films he had made in Alaska. Most of the films depicted the movement and fall of icebergs from the great glaciers into the Yukon and Copper rivers. He made a specialty in this case of making pictures for the purpose of indicating the dangers of icebergs to navigation and in this he was exceedingly successful. It was for the purpose of marketing the films that he made the trip to Europe and it is presumed that he sold the product to the Gaumont Company which has a London office. It is also claimed that he sold films in Germany, Holland, Austria and other countries. The pictures were colored and the Toledo man was known to be one of the best picture manufacturers in the business.

It is believed that he had with him a moving picture machine, the finest which skill could devise, for use in making other pictures in Alaska and the northwest. The machine was valued at about $600.

HOSPITAL

stipulated in the Everett proposal, he had promised to give $500, but that he had become so impressed by the real worth of the matter that he had decided to "double up." Mr. Van Voorhis' statement was greeted with applause and a small felt pennant bearing the inscription, "We're It," was set up at his place.

The next speaker was Mr. H. E. Adams, vice president of the First National Bank of Youngstown, who acted as general chairman in a campaign in which $185,000 was raised in six days for a Y. W. C. A. building in Youngstown. Mr. Adams' address was an able exposition of some of the history and growth of what is improperly termed "charity," but which he regards as simple duty—the privilege of the fortunate man to lend a helping hand to the man not so fortunate. Mr. Adams told of the campaign in Youngstown, where, under the direction of Mr. Honey, a campaign which was to last for 12 days, was brought to a successful conclusion with more than the amount asked subscribed in only 6 days. He attributed the success in his city to the ability and organization of Mr. Honey and to the enthusiasm brought out in the workers by the chairman of the citizens' committee. In closing, Mr. Adams stated that he was sure that all would be "splendidly disappointed," for he felt that the citizens would find that the city would respond to the appeal in a manner more pleasing and substantial than any one had dreamed.

Mr. Honey then addressed the gathering and stated that his "job was not to make speeches, but to do things," but that he had a few words to say in regard to the proposition in general. He stated that Newark would not fail in what other cities had accomplished and that the prerequisites of success were enthusiasm and determination. Mr. Honey asserted that there would be skeptics to meet, objections to be overcome, false impressions to be rectified, and "knockers" to be changed to "boosters," but that all could and would be brought to a happy conclusion by facing difficulties squarely and with determination. In closing, he predicted that all would end in a manner more than satisfactory, and that on April 30th the necessary $50,000 would be raised.

Before taking his seat Mr. Honey informed the meeting that he felt that Mr. Heisey had something to say that would be of interest to all. Mr. Heisey responded that he supposed Mr. Honey had requested him to make known the amount of his subscription. He stated that he would give $5000 toward the fund. Mr. Heisey's announcement was the signal for a burst of applause, and the "We're It" banner was transferred to his place.

Mr. Honey then outlined to the committeemen the method which is to be followed in raising the money and lists of names were furnished them in anticipation of the beginning of the work on Wednesday morning.

WILL INSTALL ENUNCIATOR

Arrangements are being made to install a patent enunciator on top of the big clock where the progress of the committeemen soliciting funds for the hospital is indicated each day.

The enunciator is an instrument which can be attached to an ordinary telephone, and it so magnifies the voice that words spoken in a telephone in an ordinary tone of voice are given strength enough to be heard at a considerable distance even out of doors.

It is planned to have announcements made in a telephone to be installed in Assembly Hall during the regular noon luncheons. This telephone will be connected with the enunciator on top of the clock and pedestrians on the street can hear the voice of the speaker, plain enough to recognize who is talking.

The instrument has been in position in the Automatic exchange for purpose of demonstration for the past several days.
